

Assignment 1: Human Subjects Training

Due: Monday 1/30/17

CU-Boulder requires all researchers complete CITI training prior to conducting research with human subjects. You must complete CITI training for this course!

Details for completing CITI training can be found here:

<http://www.colorado.edu/vcr/irb/getting-started/citi-training>

You must complete the "Social Behavioral Research Investigators and Key Personnel" Course:

1. After logging into the CITI website, choose "Add a Course or Update Learner Groups"
2. Select "Human Research for the IRB"
3. Select "Social Behavioral Research Investigators and Key Personnel"
4. Complete all required modules with a minimum score of 80/100
5. Submit a copy of your Completion Report to this assignment (view the report, download and save it, and upload it here)

If you have already have completed CITI training, simply upload a copy of your Completion Report (no need to re-take the course, unless your completion is out-of-date)
